Customers say

Customers find the tea has a pleasant taste that's not overly sweet, and appreciate its ability to provide energy without crashes and curb appetite. The product helps with gut health, improves digestion, and enhances mental clarity and focus. While some customers say it works well, others report it doesn't work for them, and experiences with bloating are mixed, with some feeling great while others experience severe stomach pains. The value for money receives mixed feedback, with some finding it worth the price while others consider it overpriced.

Since starting this in December, my life has completely changed for the better. My mood is amazing, my focus is sharp, and my energy level are through the roof. lol it keeps me happy, motivated and moving all day long while helping control my appetite. I feel energized and productive every Monday through Friday. lol I couldn't be more happier with the results...trust me by it, you won't regret it!

★★★★★ Just Try It. You Won't Be Disappointed

Reviewed in the United States on September 11, 2025

Flavor Name: Peach Mango | Size: Scoop Powder (30 Servings) | Verified Purchase

Decided to try after seeing one too many ads and as it turns out, this is my go to. It has replaced coffee and energy drinks for me in terms of finding energy boosts throughout the day. Its packed with vitamins, not to mention lions mane mushrooms which help A LOT when I'm feeling foggy at work.

The ads that kept popping up on my feed really related to losing weight which made me skeptical on buying it since its hard to trust a lot of products these days. But lemme tell ya- they weren't lying on that aspect of this product. Before purchase, I started out at a post partum, no matter what diet, exercise routine i struggled kept up with, i was stuck at a leveled out 147lbs. Not only did it curb my appetite from unnecessary snacking during the day, it basically shed the excess weight and I lost 22lbs in a matter of a few weeks. It helped me get back to my goal weight pre-baby #2.

I am on my 3rd purchase so far and have tried all flavors available and they are all fabulous. It dissolves easily in cold water- even with ice so your drink is smooth. Once dissolved it doesn't have any overpowering scent or lingering after taste like Bloom tea powders do. It offers to try it hot, but haven't attempted yet. This bag does have about 30 servings in it so if you're only having 1 a day, it'll last you about a month. I mention "about" because got a month of use even with 2 servings some days and

★★★★★ Refreshing Energy Boost and Focus

Reviewed in the United States on July 24, 2024

Flavor Name: Peach Mango | Size: Scoop Powder (30 Servings) | Verified Purchase

I can't believe I waited so long to try yerba mate. As someone who values natural caffeine sources and the benefits of antioxidants for mental clarity, focus, and digestive health, it fits perfectly into my lifestyle. Being an avid practitioner of intense yoga, taking care of my body is essential, but I do have a weakness: a coffee addiction. I've struggled to cut back on coffee numerous times without success. Especially in summer, my craving for iced coffee grows stronger, but mixing it just with water never quite satisfies me. I end up adding ice cream, cream, sugar, which adds unnecessary calories and unhealthy elements.

In search of an energy boost before my yoga sessions, I was intrigued by yerba mate but hadn't tried it before due to not liking brewed tea or boxed drinks. Discovering Yerba Magic in powdered form was a pleasant surprise, especially since it contains only 2gr of sugar. Its packaging itself exuded a calming energy, inviting me to try it immediately. Mixing it with cold water was quick and hassle-free—no need for a shaker or blender, which relieved my initial skepticism. Not being a fan of the typical aroma of brewed teas, I approached its taste cautiously. The blend of peach and mango flavors instantly won me over. It not only satisfies my need for energy but also keeps me focused for longer periods, unlike coffee

★★★★★ Finally, a Product That Delivers

Reviewed in the United States on July 6, 2026

Flavor Name: Peach Mango | Size: Scoop Powder (30 Servings) | Verified Purchase

I've been taking Yerba Magic for the past eight months, and it's one of the few products I've tried that actually delivers on its promises. It's helped me maintain my weight loss, and I've been very happy with the results. The quality is excellent, and the taste and texture are exactly what I was looking for. I would definitely recommend it to anyone looking for a product that lives up to its claims.

★★★★☆ Most important to know about this product, help with bowel, bloating, energy, cravings,

Reviewed in the United States on August 11, 2025

Flavor Name: Peach Mango | Size: Stick Packs (20 Servings) | Verified Purchase

Wonderful product, I've always had issues with gaining weight due to gut issues and I've tried multiple different things throughout the years trying to help me with my gut issues and it would normally help for a week or two then stop, I came across yerba magic so I decided to give it a try if only it would help my with my gut, I was skeptical at first but I needed to do something and with in my first week I started to notice my cravings for sweets had slowed down and my gut issues were almost gone, I continued using it and I started to notice I wasn't as much bloated anymore and I lost from a 173 pounds to 165 pounds in 3 weeks, losing weight wasn't my goal but im glad I found something that to help me with both issues, this is something that works for me, I can't say that it will work for everybody, many things haven't worked for me that did for other people, I recommend trying it and see what happens, I'm exited for my next order 😊

★★★★☆ Tastes very, VERY sweet like the after taste of fake sugars. Has good benefits too.

Reviewed in the United States on June 27, 2026

Flavor Name: Peach Mango | Size: Scoop Powder (30 Servings) | Verified Purchase

Way too sweet for my liking and tastes like fake sugar. I love the postives it offers: clean energy and the pre and probiotics. I have not found it to assist in weight loss (although I would welcome that;). It does blend well with the mini hand blender i use for coffee cream. Expensive for what it is, but good quality ingredients.
